

GORMAN'S GRAND DEPOT.

DEEPLY CUT PRICES

LADIES' COATS AND CAPES

The overcrowded and overstocked condition of our Coat Department makes it absolutely necessary for us to mark down prices at once without considering the losses that must inevitably follow.

SEASONABLE DRESS GOODS

AT CUT PRICES.

The one thought in the Dress Goods Department is to reduce stock irrespective of money-cost. If you wish to take advantage of this rare opportunity do not procrastinate. Bargains wait for no one.

The sheriff sale of the Coolbaugh house fixtures at Laceyville will take place on Monday next.

The new county officials will not take their stations until Jan. 7.

Wednesday night's storm knocked out railroad traffic so effectively that things had not settled down to normal condition yet last night. For two days the passenger trains have been running from one to four hours late, and scarcely any coal or freight was moved. The Montrose crew fought their way through the drifts and succeeded in making one trip Thursday. Yesterday they were making their usual runs.

Register and Recorder Prevost received an appeal from the register at Coudersport a day or two since asking him to use his influence to have the law repealed which provides that prothonotaries and recorders shall turn over to the state 50 per cent. of all their fees in excess of $2,000 per year, after deducting necessary office expenses, clerk hire, etc. As the total income of either of those offices here is less than $2,000, the incumbents are not specially interested in the repeal of the law.

Mr. and Mrs. James Koons, of Lynn, are visiting their son-in-law, Dean Baker.

Carl Rhenhart is very ill again with another attack of pleurisy.

Draper Billings took the weight of the freshly-fallen snow lying upon his hay scales and was surprised to find it 800 pounds. As a platform is but 7 by 13 feet, something of an idea of the terrible strain large roofs have to endure may be formed.

Miss Susie Fox is assistant at her brother's store during his absence.

In our report of the Christmas exercises the names of Misses Sarah and Ruth Hoadley were omitted. Each had a share in it and were entitled to the honors.

The Masonic order installed officers Thursday night and indulged in a banquet afterward.

The Republican did not issue yesterday on account of holiday week, and the Democrat announces that it will take a vacation next week. The New Age grinds out fifty-two copies a year.

Mrs. S. W. Eysenbach is quite a skilled artist in oil colors and a number of delightful productions from her brush are in evidence at her own home and the homes of her friends.

Otis Reynolds, the man who was confined in jail a few days since for making malicious threats, is evidently insane, and doubtless a commission in lunacy will be appointed to investigate. He labors under absurd hallucinations the greater part of the time, among which is the notion that the warden is trying to poison him with Paris green.

R. B. Camp, the Sayre jeweler, was down last evening.

Mrs. Mary Knapp has gone to Kingston to visit her brother.

Rev. J. G. Eckman, presiding elder, preached to a small but interested audience at the Methodist Episcopal church last evening.

Mrs. Josephine Fulmer, of Easton, whose maiden name was Martin, was a teacher in the Presbyterian Sabbath school some fifteen years ago. She is now here on a visit to her cousin, Mrs. A. E. Buck, and last evening six of the eight members of her old-time class made her a surprise visit, enjoying a social time and leaving her several tokens of esteem. Their names, as they now are called, are Mrs. John Turn, of Falls; Mrs. John M. Garman, of Nanticoke; Mrs. T. E. Grenville, Mrs. Frank Ace, Miss Lizzie Keifer and Miss Kate Gearhart, of this place.

The Methodist Episcopal people have ordered new slate blackboards for their Sunday school and Epworth league rooms.

The audit in the Mack & Miller assignment case was not completed at the first meeting, and the matter was adjourned until Wednesday, Jan. 9.

The snow plow of Peter Ace did good service in clearing the walks after the recent snow-fall.

CARBONDALE.

Miss Martha Thomas will return to her home in Scranton this morning after a few days' visit with Carbondale friends.

W. J. Hamilton and R. A. Mason attended the social given in Honesdale last evening by the Exchange club.

Invitations have been issued for a high tea to be given by the Young Ladies' Literary club at the home of Miss Mary Watt, on Washington street, on New Year's night.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Varcoe returned home last evening after spending Christmas with relatives in Susquehanna county.

Frederick Lette, of Kingston, spent yesterday with relatives in this city.

Yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock occurred the funeral of Thomas Birkett with Rev. Charles Lee officiating. The remains were interred in Maplewood cemetery.

Miss Mame Daley, of Salem avenue, attended a social in Wilkes-Barre last evening.

TAYLOR.

Louis Reed is sick at his home in the Pyne.

The heavy fall of snow on Wednesday night prevented the street cars from running yesterday, and the Pyne mines hoisted only six cars before they were compelled to stop working, on account of the heavy drifts. The streets were entirely deserted throughout the day and but little business was done.

The Taylor mine will work today, the first since Monday.

The water company commenced to place in water plugs here, Wednesday. One is already in position on the corner of Main and Union streets, and three others are nearly ready to be

ARCHBOLD.

John Lane, Jr., and Miss Katie Hughes were married on Tuesday afternoon in St. Thomas' church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. J. Comerford. The bride was attended by Miss Maggie Corcoran and the groom by Mr. J. Malady. The bride and her maid were very beautifully dressed and presented a most attractive appearance. The marriage was followed by a reception at the home of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hughes, of Salem street, which was attended by a large number of guests. The young couple are well and favorably known. They will begin house-keeping on Salem street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. O'Connor, of Green Ridge, spent Christmas at Mrs. O'Connor's former home on Church street.

A. J. Cawley, M. J. Kearney and Walker Burke were among the visitors to Scranton yesterday.

Misses Alida Barrett and Emma Carey, of Hyde Park, who have been visiting Miss Ellie Clark, of Pine street, have returned home.

The fair of St. Thomas' congregation continues to draw large crowds nightly. It is stated that Daniel Atkinson, Jr., will be a candidate for justice of the peace at the coming election. It will be remembered that a few votes were cast at the last borough election in favor of an increase of justices of the peace, which was a necessary preliminary to an election in February.

A child of Thomas Finmore, of Hill street, had an arm broken by a fall on the ice on Christmas day.

The Union Drug company, recently organized here, has placed a beautiful wagon on the road for the delivery of the standard remedies manufactured by the firm. The firm is composed of Thomas Monie and H. C. Linderman, two energetic young business men, who deserve the success that has attended them since they engaged in their new enterprise.

PECKVILLE.

Past Master Frank L. Taylor, of Hiram lodge, installed the officers of Oriental Star lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, last Thursday evening.

Louis Smith, of Forest City, is visiting his father, Michael Smith, of this place.

In Vino Veritas. From the Boston Courier. It was convivial party, and it had reached that stage where the "invisible spirit of wine" makes itself decidedly visible. One of the party was of the kind that carry well a heavy load, and even when fully clogged present but few evidences to the eye of such a condition. Another was of exactly the opposite nature, one of those individuals who when in their cups look it, small of it, and are alternately laughing and crying, aggressive and affectionate. The quieter looked the noisier over while the latter was making an unpleasant exhibition of himself and remarked to a neighbor: "How-ho-how much a drunken drunkard disgusts a sober drunkard!"

All Run Down

Always Tired, Sleepless and Without Appetite

Blood Vitalized and Strength Restored by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. For a couple of years, I was subject to feelings anything but good. I always felt tired, I could not sleep at night and the little I could eat did not seem to benefit me any."

I Did Not Have Any Ambition to go around or work and in fact was not able to do a good day's work. I happened to pick up a circular embracing advertisements and testimonials for Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after reading them decided to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial. I have taken five bottles and must say that I have derived wonderful benefit from it and Fool Like a New Man. I would recommend it to all sufferers and would urge them not to hesitate but to decide at once to take Hood's Sarsaparilla." PAUL M. WEBER, 1112 North Tenth Street, Reading, Pennsylvania.
